

Transitivity and mixing on topological graphs.

Piotr Oprocha

The aim of this talk is to present simple proofs that:

(i) Auslander-Yorke chaos implies Devaney chaos

(ii) weak mixing implies mixing for topological dynamical systems on topological graphs (or even in a little wider context).

Some open questions about possible generalizations of these results will be stated.